

Clean your hands and nobody gets hurt.

Association for Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology

Keeping your hands clean is the number one way to prevent the spread of germs.
Clean your hands regularly with soap and water or use hand sanitizer often to stop the spread of infection.

Learn more: www.apic.org/infectionpreventionandyou

©2017 APIC